

HELLS FELS

2020

Armed Forces

Day

Celebration

26th to 28th June

HELLS FELLS 2020

Family Festival

www.hellsfells.co.uk

Raising awareness of ex-service personnel who are struggling to adjust to civilian life following the traumas of war

The event is also a celebration of Armed Forces Day

New location for 2020 at Birks Farm, Birks Lane, Sedbergh

Festival starts 12 noon Friday 26th June 2020 and runs through to Sunday 28th June

Live music and refreshments available all weekend

Camping is also available

Live music with Ska Face headlining on Friday night and Parka Monkeys & Immediate Saturday night. The Sedbergh brass band will be opening proceedings on the Saturday

Refreshments will be provided by the Veteran Village supported by Howgill Ice Cream

New attractions for 2020 include the Inch Perfect Trials display team who will be performing on Saturday 27th

Numerous other activities available over the weekend which include face paints, inflatables, assault course, boulder wall, bungee trampoline, games, tyre flip, birds of prey display and childrens disco

We will also be hosting a Fell Run and Tractor Pull competition on the Saturday and are currently looking for competitors and teams to take part

Entry is FREE for children (under 16 years) and for ex-service personnel and their families

Adults: £5 per day and £10 per night, £15 weekend pass, Car Park: £5
(Discounted prices available for bookings in advance. Call 07802 852451)

Discounted taxi service available over the weekend
Call 01539 239239 and quote Hells Fells (book early to avoid disappointment)